Fellow Lions,

Spring is here and things heated up with activities in March. The Peninsula Council of Lions honored those who put their lives on the line everyday protecting the community. Inspiring stories were told about their valor and service. Burlingame Lions honored two of their finest, Burlingame Police Inspector Michael Bolanos and Sgt David Perna. Congratulations and thank you for your service to Burlingame. I encourage everyone to attend next year's Police and Fire Awards Dinner and hear the unique and amazing stories behind the awards. You'll never look at Siri the same way.

If March wasn't warm enough for you then the Club would like to recruit you to join the festivities at the District Convention in Redding in May. Please register!

It was a balmy 80 degrees in the evening of the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce and Burlingame Lions Club Mixer that Lion Brad Floyd diligently planned along with his Lion team members. It was nice seeing Lions from San Francisco and San Mateo visit as well as our District Governor Mario who gave the Keynote speech about Lionism. It was evening of good food, drinks, and great company. Our Burlingame Police Chief Eric Wollman joined the festivities. Thanks to all those that mingled with our Chamber of Commerce neighbors. I encourage every member to visit the next Chamber Mixer outside of the Lions Hall.

This Saturday was the 49th Burlingame Easter Egg Hunt Co-Chaired by Viviana Bolivar, Erik Winkler, and Geno Caccia. Lion Geno and his wife Susan laid the ground work and texted from Korea while Lions Erik and Viviana rallied the Lions and Leos to another successful Easter Egg Hunt. There were hundreds of smiles on children and parents alike. Millbrae Lion Anthony Caccia ensured all the logistics ran smoothly. Our Executive BBQ Chef Lion Kevin Kielty and his wife Debbie orchestrated the breakfast along with a team of Lions. Thank you Lions PDG Don, Maryah, Pat, Nancy, Ken Ingram, PDG Jack, Hap, Leonard, Susana, Betty, Jackie, and Bunny. The Leos did a fabulous job wrapping up the eggs, serving breakfast, and setting up and tearing down of the field.

April is here and please join us next week for the first meeting of the month on April 5th. On April 19th, Burlingame Mayor Michael Brownrigg will give the State of the City Address. The recipient of the Burlingame Citizen of the Year Award has been chosen. Please mark your calendar to attend the Citizen of the Year Award Ceremony on Saturday May 12th at 11:30 am at the Bocce Courts.

Yours in service,
President Kwang Park

Chocoholics Unite at the Next Luncheon Meeting

If you love chocolate, you have to attend the lunch meeting on April 5, 2018. We will be served the newest addition to the Burger King lineup. It's the "Chocolate Whopper". It is just being released, so they want to get it out to the public. Be sure to attend this meeting to sample their newest specialty Whopper. It's delicious.

CHAMBER of COMMERCE

CHAMBER MIXER

Our Chamber Mixer was a great success. DG Mario Benavente spoke of the Lions and their relationship with the community. Ross Bruce of AVR Realty spoke about the Chamber and its goals. This was a great way for our two groups to join forces and work together.

Bocce Fundraiser for Parks Improvement

The Burlingame Lions Club, together with the Parks and Rec Foundation, will hold its second Bocce Fundraiser on Saturday, May 12, 2018 at the Washington Park Bocce courts. The competition will take place from 8:00 am until 2:30 pm.

The tournament is limited to twelve teams, so get your team together and register by Friday, May 4, 2018. Prizes will be awarded to the top finishers...plus bragging rights.

Check the tournament flier for tournament details.

“The Roar of the Pride”

Join the Lions at the Red Lion Hotel

The District Convention takes place at the Red Lion Hotel in Redding, May 3-6, 2018. Join Lions from all over the District in a celebration of all things Lions. This year, the theme is “The Magical World of Lions”, mirroring the Disney theme. This may be your only chance to see Lion Winkler dressed as Tinker Bell. Come up and enjoy the festivities and food.

The deadline for registration is April 2, 2018, so get your reservation in by Monday. Contact Lion Jack Van Etten if you have questions.

CALL to the Challenge

CALL Primrose is conducting a fundraising brunch on Saturday, June 23, 2018, and they need able-bodied help to set up tables and chairs, food service, and clean up after the event. “Volunteer duties will include “heavy lifting” with tables and chairs. They are seeking help for these shifts:

- Set up: 9:00-11:00 am
- Food service: 11:00am-1:00pm
- Clean up: 1:00-3:00pm

Lions or Leos are welcome to volunteer. They will send along a “Sign Up Genius”, or sign off for volunteer hours.

Please contact Betsy Rosen to volunteer, or for information:
betsyrosen2@gmail.com, (479) 366-6141

“The Roar of the Pride”

Beware of the Merry Pranksters on April 1st

April Fool's Day, also called All Fools' Day, is celebrated every April 1st in the United States. It's a day the many celebrate by pulling practical jokes on their colleagues and friends. The origin of this day is clouded in mystery but some speculate that it began in 1582, when France switched from the Julian calendar to the Gregorian calendar. People who were slow to adapt to the change and celebrated the new year in a different month, became the butt of jokes and hoaxes.

In modern times, people sometimes go to great lengths to concoct stories to prank the public.

- On April 1, 2000, England's Independent ran a hoax story with the headline, "Scientists develop wonder pill to boost libido of sexually inadequate pets." Apparently, it was developed to put more life in old Fido.
- In 1981, the Herald-News reported that the federal government had allocated $1.3 million dollars to release two thousand sharks into three lakes to study the breeding and habits of fresh-water sharks.
- The BBC ran a television story on the record crop of spaghetti that year. The video showed farmers harvesting spaghetti strands from trees. Several people inquired where to obtain one of the spaghetti trees.
- In 1924, the Washington Post ran a story announcing that E.J. Campbell, a beekeeper, had developed a stingless bee. Because of its gentle disposition, it would be a great playmate for children.
- Google announced in 2005, that it developed the "Google Gulp". It was a soft drink that would improve your search engine experience by increasing your intelligence.
- In 1998, Burger King took out a full-page ad announcing the release of a "Left-Handed Whopper" to enhance the dining experience of all left handed people.
- The earliest hoax, took place in London in 1698. Rumors were spread that the ritual "Washing of the Lions" would occur at the Tower of London on April 1. People showed up at the allotted time and place, only to be disappointed that there were no lions being washed.

- Spelling Bee: The 2018 Burlingame Lions Citywide Spelling Bee has been scheduled for Tuesday, May 1, 2018. The competition will be held at the Lions Hall. The start time is 4:00 pm. This is an annual event where students from the eight elementary schools in Burlingame compete to see who is the top speller in Burlingame. Plan to come to the program and see these bright students compete in an academic competition.
- Easter Egg Hunt: Lions Viviana Bolivar, Erik Winkler and Kevin Kielty announced that the Easter Egg Hunt will take place on March 31, 2018. This event requires a massive amount of “Lion Power”, so mark your calendar to come out and help. This is a great Lions community project, so be sure to lend a hand.

NEW BULLETIN EDITOR NEEDED

A new Bulletin Editor will be needed beginning July 1, 2018. It is not a difficult process. Any word processing program would be suitable. The current Bulletin is based on Word Publisher and all templates can be provided to you. It is a rewarding experience, as it keeps you in touch with the activities of the Club and maintains communication between the Club and its members.

It’s a great way to contribute to the Club.

If you are interested, respond to: lionsclubburlingame@yahoo.com
