Fellow Lions:

Tis the season for giving. Giving to Uncle Sam. It's April which means tax time is upon us. Congress passed the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act. The good news for the 2018 tax year is the standard deduction has been increased. The bad news is that more people may not itemize which may result in less people making charitable donations as the tax savings may shrink. The good news is the estate tax exemption increases to $22 million for couples which may mean less money left to charities from large estates. The unintended consequences of all these changes means less money going to nonprofits. This means that service organizations like the Lions Club will be more important to help close the charity gap through service and donations.

To have a bigger impact in our communities and close the service gap, our Club needs to continue to attract and retain members. In the coming months, please invite civic and community minded friends and associates to our upcoming meetings and events. For those civic minded, invite guests to hear our Mayor in April and our San Mateo County Supervisor in May. For those involved with schools, invite your guests to celebrate student service at our evening April meeting with the Leo's Awards Night or our May lunch awarding the Dan Santos School Staffing Awards. For those outdoors enthusiasts, invite them to our Bocce Ball fundraiser to help raise funds for park improvements. For those car or design enthusiasts, invite them to our 14th Annual Cars-in-the-Park. If there is a cause or passion that isn't covered bring your ideas to the Board or general membership. Every project or tradition was started as an idea.

If you are short on ideas then I encourage you to talk to your city representatives, school administrator, police, food bank, etc and ask them where there may be a need that may match with our members skill set. Reach out and join a Lions meeting outside of the Burlingame Club and hear about other Lion's good works which may get your creative juices going.

Final reminder that April 23 is the deadline where a registration form and check needs to be in the hands of PDG Macy Chan. Hope all of you can join us in Redding in May. Please join us at the Hall on April 18 at 4:30 – 5:30 pm for an informal convention planning/discussion. Want to make sure everyone has a chance to give their creative input and ensure everyone who wants to participate has a chance. You don't need to be going to convention to join in and give your input.

Your President,
Lion Kwang Park

Meeting Schedule

“The Roar of the Pride”

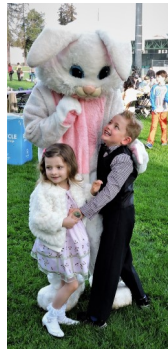

The 49th Annual Burlingame Lions Easter Egg Hunt

On a glorious Saturday morning, we held our annual Lions Easter Egg Hunt. Hundreds of children and adults feasted on a breakfast of pancakes, sausages and freshly cut fruit, before embarking on their hunt for their chocolate Easter eggs. Our members showed up in force to make this event run smoothly, and the San Mateo Elks Club Band raised everyone’s spirit with their lively music. The movers and shakers for this event were Lions Viviana Bolivar, Erik Winkler, Geno Caccia, Kevin Kielty, and Anthony Caccia, of the Millbrae Lions Club. This event would not be possible without the help of all the Lions coming out to “SERVE” in this community event. A big round of applause to everyone helping out on this project.

Bringing the Generations Together

Our annual “Roots and Shoots” visitation to McKinley elementary will take place on Friday, May 11, 2018, from 10:00-11:30 am. We will enjoy a fruit and croissant brunch before the children’s performance.

This program celebrates the relationship that children have with their grandparents. The children put on a wonderful program, which includes songs and expressions of love. Now is the time to brush up on the lyrics of “Grandma’s Feather Bed”.

Please let Lion Mendelson know that you will be attending: glennm1@ix.netcom.com

Past Roots and Shoots

Our Club is filled with great stand-in grandparents. Here are some wonderful Lions who participated in past Roots and Shoots.

The Lions Citywide Spelling Bee

PARTNERED WITH

BOOKS INC.

The Lions Citywide Spelling Bee comes to the Hall on Tuesday, May 1, 2018 at 4:00 pm. This academic contest pits teams from the eight Burlingame elementary schools in a Spelling Bee competition to determine who will be the Champion Speller this year. In all, there will be 28 students in this program but only one will stand alone as the champ. The winning team will take possession of the Lion John Parish Spelling Trophy until the next tournament.

The top three spellers are awarded certificates provided by Books, Inc. They also provide certificates to all students who participate in the contest.

Support this program by coming by to help monitor the spellers, or to help serve refreshments at the end of the contest. Contact Lion Leonard Ma if you would like to help out.

A New Hat for the Hall

The Lions Hall is getting a new roof. Lion Ken Ingram is working very hard on getting this project done quickly to avoid any loss in rental revenue. The amount of work to be done will depend upon what is found under the existing roof. Many thanks to Lion Ken for overseeing this project.

Details of the program are detailed in the flier.

CALL to the Challenge

CALL Primrose is conducting a fundraising brunch on Saturday, June 23, 2018, and they need able-bodied help to set up tables and chairs, food service, and clean up after the event. “Volunteer duties will include “heavy lifting” with tables and chairs. They are seeking help for these shifts:

- Food service: 11:00am-1:00pm
- Clean up: 1:00-3:00pm

Lions or Leos are welcome to volunteer. They will send along a “Sign Up Genius”, or sign off for volunteer hours.

Bocce Fundraiser for the Benefit of the Burlingame Parks and Rec Foundation

The Burlingame Lions Club, together with the Parks and Rec Foundation, will hold its second Bocce Fundraiser on Saturday, May 12, 2018 at the Washington Park Bocce courts. The competition will take place from 9:00 am to 2:30 pm. The tournament is limited to 12 teams, so sign up soon. Details on registration and sponsorship are detailed in the attached flier. Get a bottle of Chianti and a bocce ball, and you're all set to go.

Last Chance for the Big Dance

The deadline to register for the convention has been extended to Monday, April 23, 2018.

Be sure to send your registration to PDG Macy Mak Chan before this date.

Come on up and join in the fun at the Red Lion Hotel in Redding!

“The Roar of the Pride”

An Evening to Honor a Hardworking Leo

We will be paying tribute to one of our Leos, who has devoted countless hours to community service in the past year. At the evening meeting of April 26, 2018, we will honor a Leo for service beyond the call of duty. Please make a point of attending this important meeting to recognize a student who believes in the spirit of “SERVICE”.

New Bulletin Editor Needed

A new Bulletin Editor will be needed beginning July 1, 2018. It is not a difficult process. Any word processing program would be suitable. The current Bulletin is based on Word Publisher and all templates can be provided to you. It is a rewarding experience, as it keeps you in touch with the activities of the Club and maintains communication between the Club and its members.

It's a great way to contribute to the Club.
