Turbotastic! The convention was a blast. So much fun and dedication from all the Lion Clubs who came together for camaraderie, celebration, and enjoyment. After the drive to Redding, all the fun was within a short walk from the hotel room to the international parade, international food fair, dinner, lunch, and, Gin Fizzes. It truly was the Magical World of Lions. Our Club won second place for our Lionism skit and first place for our semimonthly Bulletin. We also took the PDG Phil Ritzau Perpetual Award. Thank you Lion Leonard (and Lion Dale) for all your hard work and content on the Bulletin. Lion Kevin Kielty won Gold on the golf course. Hmm . . . the Club was not on the board for the Eyeglass Collection Award. I am sure there were more boxes of glasses in the storage room in the past 9 months that surpassed the other clubs' donations. Maybe a reporting issue.

PDG Jack and his team did a fabulous job planning the 2018 Convention. Congratulations to the new slate of District officers, DG Lydia Taylor Bellinger, 1st VDG Helen Casacang, and 2nd VDG Fanny Chu. I hope more of the members make the trip to Redding next year for the 2019 Convention.

Attendance has been light recently at our regular meetings. Some have been travelling for work or others for family. Some have had illnesses. May your health and spirits improve. The Club misses you and hopes to see you soon. There was no shortage of members and guests at the Lions Burlingame Spelling Bee. The room was packed with students, teachers, principals, Lions, and families. We are still tallying the proceeds from the Bocce fundraiser which had 12 teams of four or more and another 30 family members and spectators. Thanks to all the Lions who helped volunteer and make this event a success. Almost to $2,000 was raised.

In addition to the bocce playing, Lion President Kwang awarded Randy Schwartz with the 2017/18 Burlingame Citizen of the Year Award. Randy exemplified Lionism by serving his fellow neighbors and building community. Now we just need to get him an application and sign him up as a Lion. Burlingame Mayor Brownrigg was in attendance as well as a delegate from the San Mateo Supervisor's office. Dave Pines had signed up to play; however, due to a family emergency, was not able to attend.

Last Friday, Lion members continued the tradition of Roots & Shoots at McKinley Elementary School. They are foregoing hotdogs and had healthy snacks. Times are changing.

This Thursday is our Lion Dan Santos School Staffing Award meeting. Come celebrate and congratulate our silent heroes in our schools along with school principals and the San Mateo Superintendent. Our last May evening meeting will be our State of the County Address by San Mateo Supervisor Dave Pines.

Your President,
Lion Kwang Park

CONVENTION NEWS FLASH

The winners of the Convention contests were announced and this Bulletin won the best bulletin in the Semi-Monthly division, and the PDG Phil Ritzau Perpetual Award for the Best Overall Bulletin.

Our thespians took second place in the Amateur Show and Lion Kevin Kielty took the trophy in the Convention Golf tournament.

Meeting Schedule

May 17, 2018:

Lunch Meeting: Club Vote: Your attendance is greatly appreciated

MAGICAL WORLD OF LIONS

Before Convention

Convention fun

The District Convention was a great event for all who attended. Lions Kevin Kielty, Judy Malfatti, Erik Winkler, Viviana Bolivar, Jack Van Etten, Kwang Park, Maryah Tucker, and PDG Don Stanaway were the stalwart members attending from our Club. Lion Kevin Kielty maintains his mastery of the links, as he shot an 86 at the Gold Hills course and took home the tournament trophy. With Lion PDG Van Etten at the helm, the convention ran smoothly, which was no easy task since there were 250 guests in attendance. He also mentioned that the Convention will be in Redding for the next few years.

In keeping with the theme of the Convention, Lion Winkler came dressed as Tinkerbell. Somewhere in an alternate universe, Peter Pan is having nightmares.

Exhausted After Convention

“The Roar of the Pride”

One of the primary functions of convention is to elect our District leaders for 2018-19. Here are the elected incoming officers.

Earle Peterson of Books, Inc. addresses our audience. They are co-sponsors of our event, supplying gift certificates for all participants, and the three top spellers.

The Bee Blew thru the Lions Hall

The 10th Annual Lions Citywide Spelling Bee was held at the Lions Hall on Tuesday. It was a great event.

The Lions Brain trust in action. Lions Lopez and Pedigo were joined by Neha Bandrapalli and Emily Pedigo as the “Bee Team”. Lion Bill Lopez presented the words, Lion Pedigo provided the word definitions, and Emily and Neha (2nd generation Lions) monitored the spelling and status of the competitors.

“The Calm before the Storm”

The spellers waiting for the competition to begin. Each of the eight elementary schools in Burlingame sent a three student team to represent their school. The lone surviving speller is crowned “Champion Speller”.

“The Roar of the Pride”

As the competition came to a close, Luke Chommanard from St. Catherine’s stood alone as the Champion Speller. The second place winner was Jaylen Amlani from Lincoln, and the third place winner was Noah Chiang from Washington. Luke’s name will be inscribed on the John Parish Trophy, which will remain with St. Catherine’s until the next competition.

Phew...it’s all over!

The Lions Citywide Spelling Bee is our way of supporting children’s education in this community. We provide a donation to each of the participating schools and a venue to showcase the academic skills of their students. Helping to put this event on this year are the following: Lions Chip Coleman, Bill Lopez, Hap Pedigo, Kevin Kielty, Nirmala Bandrapalli, Kwang Park, Leonard Ma, and Sandee Ige (SSF Host Lions). Lending much needed support were Neha Bandrapalli, and Emily Pedigo. President Kwang’s son, Young Min, and daughter, Se Nah were also there to lend a hand.

*If you haven’t attended this event, consider joining us next year.
It’s a great program.*

Bocci Fundraiser for the Burlingame Rec Department and The Lions Citizen of the Year Award

Saturday was a beautiful day to hold a bocce tournament and it was a great fundraiser for the Park and Rec Department. The proceeds from this tournament will go towards the programs and park improvements developed by the Burlingame Park & Rec Department.

The Lions Citizen of the Year was Randy Schwartz., who was the director of the Burlingame Park & Rec department for several years. He is now the President of the Burlingame Parks and Recreation Foundation, a non-profit organization to raise funds for projects that the Rec Department feels benefits the community. Our last bocce tournament raised funds for the renovation of Paloma Park. That event raised $2,000.00 for the project.

Roots and Shoots

Roots and Shoots is a program put on by McKinley elementary to pay homage to the relationship between the generations. They invite our members to join in the celebration. We had a nice croissant brunch and a cute program put on by the kids.

WHAT'S GOING ON????

“The Roar of the Pride”

- Best wishes to Lion PDG Don Stanaway for a quick recovery from a tumble at the Convention. Hope you get up and running very soon.
- Good thoughts to Lion Dale Schmidt who is experiencing some health issues. We hope that this is a small bump in an otherwise healthy road.
- Wishing Lion Nancy Ingram a safe and happy trip to the Philippines to visit friends and family. Our Club coffers won't be safe until your return.
- Lion Ken Ingram has some upcoming procedures on his calendar. We all hope that everything moves along smoothly and quickly.

New Bulletin Editor Needed

A new Bulletin Editor will be needed beginning July 1, 2018. It is not a difficult process. Any word processing program would be suitable. The current Bulletin is based on Word Publisher and all templates can be provided to you. It is a rewarding experience, as it keeps you in touch with the activities of the Club and maintains communication between the Club and its members.

It's a great way to contribute to the Club.
