It was perfect weather and an almost perfect game for team Kinsella. If it wasn't for the arm brace the Kinsella Clan could have taken the whole tournament. But Team Kinsella finished a respectful second place. Although I'll still have to fine him for not bringing home gold. Thanks to the mishap of Lion Jack, teams that placed 2nd, 3rd, and 4th got a commemorative plaque as well. They looked great Lion Jack.

Team Betty with her partners in crime Lion Jackie, Lion Bunny, Betty's daughter started out cold peaked early then cooled down at the end. It may have correlated with the number of mimosas or was it the bellinis? Team Leonard along with Lions Hap, Jack, and Lopez were the favorites but only clinged to 4th place. I am starting to think the Burlingame Park and Rec folks recruited an Italian team that came straight off a flight of Alitalia that morning.

Team Geno along with Lion Kwang, Susan, and Tom scored close to double digits in the first round (some say it was senior abuse) but it was all downhill from there. Seems the Team Geno used all their luck at the beginning rather than evenly spreading their luck out. Live and learn.

In between the games, the players enjoyed the beautiful breakfast spread that Lion Deborah and Kevin Kielty put together. It looked like a breakfast spread from a Maui hotel. Lion Erik, Lion Kevin, Eddie, and Lion Geno were grilling onions, peppers, and Italian sausages while serving up wine and beer with their third hands.

It felt like Vegas at the raffle table with Lion Betty, Jackie, Alice, and Bunny selling food, wine, and raffle tickets. We may need to work on shaking up the numbers a bit. Seemed a certain table of Park and Rec folks got all the restaurant gift cards. Special thanks to Susan Caccia for making the last minute run to purchase and donate additional raffle prizes.

Although we didn't take first, all that played had a ball and a great time. We are still counting the money using an abacus for accuracy so we should have a final tally soon. However, we are certain we exceeded our goal to net raise $2,000 to help rebuild Paloma Park. There were 15 teams registered and all three courts were sponsored. Thank you Caccia Plumbing and Re/Max as well as the merchants on Burlingame Ave.

Thanks to all the Lion members who helped organize, setup, cook, serve, and play. Special thanks to the Burlingame Parks and Rec Foundation for running the bocce tournament. They ran it smoothly and efficiently like the Nuns at St. Catherine run the school playground. It was a pleasure meeting and working with the folks at the Burlingame Parks and Rec Foundation.

Until the rematch...

Regards,
Lion Kwang Park

Lions Health Update

What do you call Lion Coleman when he takes a tumble? Ans: Lion “Chipped” Coleman. Lion Coleman took a nasty fall on his trip to Murren, Switzerland. A fractured kneecap cut his trip short but he doesn’t require surgery to repair the damage. A few months off the dancing floor and he’ll be as good as new. Our hopes for a quick and complete recovery. Maybe he’ll give us a short program on his trip when he’s up and running.

Bingo Bonanza

It’s Burlingame Lions Bingo night on December 1, 2017. Lion Nirmala Bandrapalli invites you to bring your lucky daubers and charms to the Lions Hall and play bingo. Lion Nirmala is still working on the details of the evening. More information will be coming in the weeks to follow. Be sure to save the date.

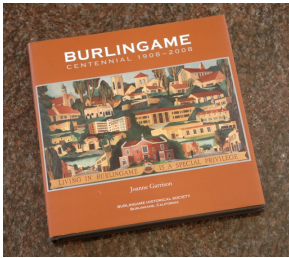

Get a Burlingame History Lesson

Our speaker at our Thanksgiving lunch will be Joanne Garrison, author of the book on the history of Burlingame. Her topic will be everything and anything about our town: Pacific City (The Coney Island of the West), the rich and famous Burlingame Royalty, why the trees line El Camino Real, or the Tales of the Seven Creeks.

This special Thanksgiving luncheon will be held on November 16, 2017.

Set aside the day, bring a guest, and learn about this beautiful city.

Bocci Success

The Bocci Fundraiser for Paloma park was a huge success. This children's park was designated a Burlingame Lions Club "Tot Lot" for several years. Due to recent fire damage, it required extensive renovation. This event was co-produced by the Lions Club and the Burlingame Park and Rec Foundation, headed by Randy Schwartz. The tournament raised over $2,000.00 for the rebuild. Lions Kwang Park, Kevin Kielty, and Geno Cacci were instrumental in running this project.

Our donation will be recognized with an inscribed brick plaque showing our support for this project. This park was one of several Burlingame "Tot Lots" that we supported in years past. Supporting the playgrounds has been a long standing goal of our Club. At a time when we could work on the project ourselves, we helped to install the playgrounds of Bayside, Ray Park and Cuernavaca Park.

It's a White Elephant Auction

We are planning a White Elephant Auction for Friday, November 10, 2017 at the Lions Hall. It will be a grand event. . spaghetti dinner, silent auction, and a live auction. We'll have a team of auctioneers to keep the bidding exciting and lively.

We need you to donate White Elephant items for the live auction, as well as suitable items for our silent auction. The silent auction items can be gift certificates for service or food, material items that have reasonable value, collectible items, or something that would attract bidding. Contact Lion Len Ma to donate to this event, or if you have questions.

This event will be a fun-filled success if we have a full house. The cost will be very reasonable, so there isn't any excuse for not attending.

CHECK OUT THE FLIER AT THE END OF THIS BULLETIN.

Proceeds from this function will benefit the Administrative fund of the BLC.
