Thanks to all the Veterans who serve and protect our freedoms and citizens. Thanks to all the Burlingame Lion members who serve and help our neighbors and community. Our motto should be "Serve and Love." There is much to be thankful for this Thanksgiving season, especially the service and dedication to Lionism by our members. Your passion and energy touches so many in our community. From the children and parents at Easter to the patients at the Lions Eye Foundation. Thanks for bringing awareness to the community. What are you most thankful for? I may call on you at this Thursday and ask to give me your top three. So be ready or be prepared to be fined. There's tough love and then there is light hearted abuse by the Tail Twister. You have been warned.

I am thankful for the Burlingame Lions Past Presidents that gathered together for lunch last Thursday to give feedback and suggestions to improve our club and engage our members. Four months have past. So many have been served by you. I will be asking three members every month to make RSVP calls for our future meetings and events. I also ask that each member invite one new guest each month to a regular Lions meeting or volunteer event. PDG Jack you can't recycle the same guest.

I experienced my first White Elephant event last Friday. It was like an animated yard sale with comic relief from the auctioneers. Thanks to the members who tirelessly set up the room and cooked the meal Friday afternoon to Lion Hap washing dishes late into the night. Thanks to PDG Don for kicking off the auction along with Lion Bill and Erik following his tough act. It was nice to see the other clubs come join in the festivities. Thanks to all the members who brought friends and guests. If OLA had a Friday evening mass they probably noticed a drop in attendance last Friday. Lion Bill Lopez's son, Jesse, and Lion Pat Kinsella's grandnephew, Peter, were great sports.

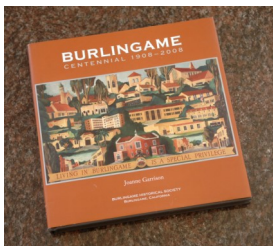

President Kwang Park

Get a Burlingame History Lesson

Our speaker at our Thanksgiving lunch will be Joanne Garrison, author of the book on the history of Burlingame. Her topic will be everything and anything about our town: Pacific City (The Coney Island of the West), the rich and famous Burlingame Royalty, why the trees line El Camino Real, or the Tales of the Seven Creeks.

This special Thanksgiving luncheon will be held on November 16, 2017.

It's Burlingame Lions Bingo night on December 1, 2017. Lion Nirmala Bandrapalli invites you to bring your lucky daubers and charms to the Lions Hall and play bingo. All funds will go towards fighting hunger on the Peninsula.

LIBRARIES TRANSFORM

FUNDED BY THE BURLINGAME LIBRARY FOUNDATION

Get in the Mood

Come to the Burlingame Library on November 19, 2017, to see the Bay Pointe Ballet put on the holiday staple, The Nutcracker.

The show starts at 1:30 pm in the Children's Room of the Burlingame Library. This is free and open to the public. This would be a great program for kids and grand-kids.

If we're lucky, Uncle Drosselmeyer, will be played by Lion McCulley.

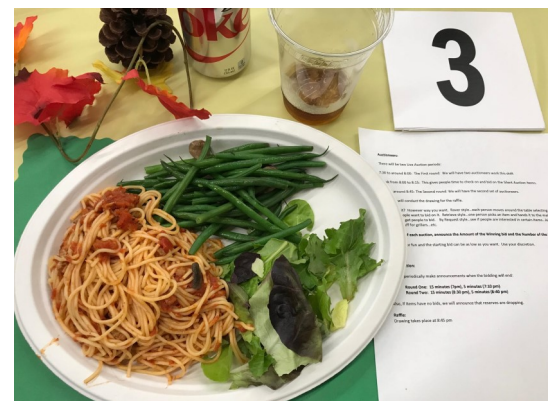

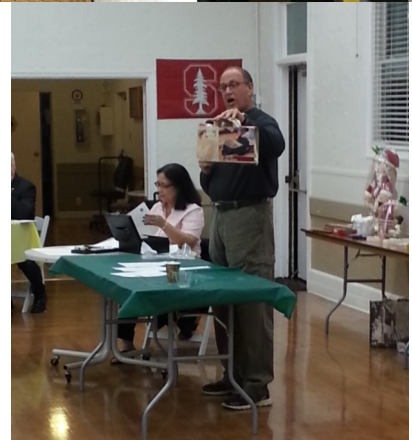

The White Elephant Rumbles into the Lions Hall

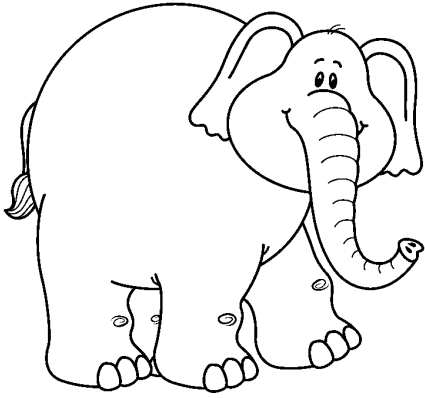

The White Elephant Auction came to town on Friday night and it was an evening of fun and laughter for everyone. Auctioneers extraordinaire, Lions Stanaway, Winkler, Park, and Lopez used every trick in the book to get our guests to purchase our eclectic assortment of items.

There were three activities going on during the evening and Lion Nancy Ingram handled the finances of all of them without missing a beat. The clean up crew was a one man team, named Hap. Our newest members, Lions Bunny and Tsui, were on hand enjoying the camaraderie of working together for a common cause.

All in all, everyone left with smiles and lots of stuff that they didn't think they needed at the start of the day. Our Administrative account got a shot in the arm, which should help us grow in membership and community visibility.

A great time was had by all.

Thanksgiving Facts and Figures

A Thanksgiving mix-up inspired the first TV dinners: In 1953, a Swanson employee accidentally ordered a colossal shipment of Thanksgiving turkeys (260 tons, to be exact). To get rid of them all, salesman Gerry Thomas came up with the idea of filling 5,000 aluminum trays with the turkey – along with cornbread dressing, gravy, peas and sweet potatoes. They were sold for 98 cents, and were a hit. Within one year, over ten million were sold.

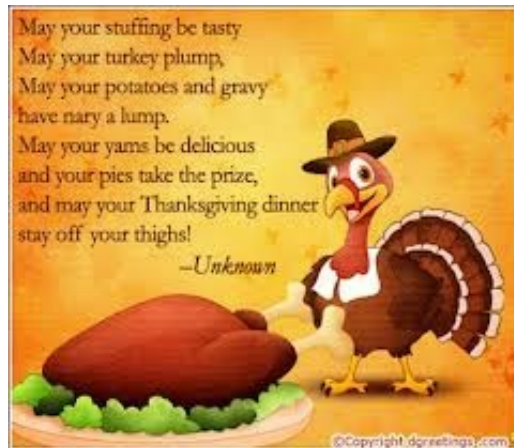

About 46 million turkeys are cooked for Thanksgiving each year, compared with 22 million for Christmas.

The Colonists probably didn't eat turkey at their feast: There is truly no definitive proof that the bird we wait all year to eat was even offered to guests back in 1621. However, they did indulge in other interesting foods like lobster, seal and swan.

The day after Thanksgiving is the busiest day of the year for plumbers. They experience a 21 percent increase in calls over the four-day weekend than any other Thursday to Sunday period in the year.

Turkey Tail: Many Americans prefer the white meat of the turkey, while people in other countries prefer the dark meat. The tail of the turkey is a delicacy for certain people. They enjoy a gland in the tail that is filled with oil that the turkey uses to preen its feathers.

Want to eat more turkey?: Canada celebrates Thanksgiving also. They celebrate it on the second Monday in October. Turkeys don't have it easy in the United States or Canada.

Still Hungry?? How about a Piecaken?

What's a Piecaken, you ask? A Piecaken is a pie baked inside a cake. You can use any combination of pies and cakes. If you're brave enough to try baking one of these, there's a recipe at the end of the bulletin.

If you want to buy one, here's a place to purchase one:

Bon appetit !!

“The Roar of the Pride”

Speaking with Authority

Lion Brad McCulley has scheduled the Club’s Student Speaker contest for February 15, 2018. The topic for this year is:

“Integrity and Civility Play What Role in Today’s Society”

Lion Brad may ask for help filling roles as timekeepers, tellers, or Hall security. These duties are necessary to running a proper contest. Please step up if asked.

Convention Coming Up

Lion PDG Van Etten informs us that the District 4C4 Convention will take place on May 2-6, 2018, at the Red Lion Hotel, in Redding.

Plan to come on up and join others in the District in the annual festival of fun.

Piecaken

Recipe courtesy of Kitchen Sink

Show: Kitchen Sink | Episode: The Great Debate: Cake vs. Pie

Total: 6 hr
Active: 40 min
Yield: 18 to 20 servings

Ingredients

- Nonstick cooking spray
- 1 box chocolate cake mix (for two 9-inch rounds), plus required ingredients for batter
- 1 box strawberry cake mix (for two 9-inch rounds), plus required ingredients for batter
- 1 box vanilla cake mix (for two 9-inch rounds), plus required ingredients for batter
- 1 store-bought 8-inch custard pie
- 1 store-bought 8-inch lemon pie or lemon meringue pie with the meringue removed
- 1 store-bought 8-inch cherry pie
- Three batches Vanilla American Buttercream, recipe follows, or two 16-ounce cans store-bought vanilla frosting

Vanilla Buttercream:

- 2 sticks (8 ounces) unsalted butter, at room temperature
- 4 cups confectioners' sugar (1-pound box)
- Pinch fine salt
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1 to 2 tablespoons milk

Directions

Special equipment: three 9-inch cake pans

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F. Spray three 9-inch cake pans with nonstick cooking spray.

Mix the cake batters according to the box directions.

Pour about 1 cup of the chocolate cake batter in one of the cake pans. Remove the custard pie from its metal tin, put it in the center of the cake pan and gently press it into the batter. Add more cake batter to completely cover the pie but do not fill to the top of the cake pan. Tap the cake pan on the counter to make sure the batter surrounds the pie.

Pour about 1 cup of the strawberry cake batter in a second cake pan. Remove the lemon pie from its metal tin, put it in the center of the cake pan and gently press it into the batter. Add more cake batter to completely cover the pie but do not fill to the top of the cake pan. Tap the cake pan on the counter to make sure the batter surrounds the pie.

Pour about 1 cup of the vanilla cake batter in a second cake pan. Remove the cherry pie from its metal tin, put it in the center of the cake pan and gently press it into the batter. Add more cake batter to completely cover the pie but do not fill to the top of the cake pan. Tap the cake pan on the counter to make sure the batter surrounds the pie.

Bake the cakes until the centers are sturdy when the cakes are gently shaken and the cakes start to pull away from the edges of the pans, 40 to 50 minutes.

Let the cakes cool in their pans for 30 minutes, then remove from pans and place the cakes on racks. Let cool completely, about 4 hours.

Trim the tops of the cakes with a serrated knife so they are level, making sure not to cut it too far down and cut into the pie.

Place the vanilla cake layer on a plate or cake stand. Place the strawberry layer on the vanilla cake layer and then place the chocolate cake layer on top of the strawberry layer.

Frost the outside of the cake with the Vanilla American Buttercream.

Vanilla Buttercream:

Combine the butter, confectioners' sugar and salt in the bowl of a stand mixer fitted with a paddle attachment (or in a large bowl if using a handheld electric mixer). Mix on low speed until mostly incorporated. Add the vanilla, increase the speed to medium-high and mix until smooth. Adjust the consistency with milk as desired. Use immediately, or refrigerate in an airtight container up to 3 days. Allow to come to room temperature and mix on medium-high until smooth.
