2019 NCCBF QUEEN PROGRAM CANDIDATE: The Nikkei Lions Club is again sponsoring a candidate for the Queen Program. Her name is Elena Anne Harumi Nielsen of Clayton. She is a UC Berkeley grad and taught English in Japan for a few years, starting as a JET instructor. She is interested in working in a Japanese non-profit and lists her creative expression for the Queen Program as singing. She has been involved with the Diablo Taiko Club and has been an intern at JCCCNC.

2019 NCCBF SENIOR APPRECIATION BRUNCH: David Fujita and Joan Fujita will be two of honorees this year at the 2019 SAB on April 21st, Hotel Kabuki. Congratulations to David and Joan. A well deserved honor.

HELP IS NEEDED AT THE APRIL 21ST SENIOR APPRECIATION BRUNCH PROGRAM:

Club members are being sought who can volunteer at the SAB event where our Lion David and Joan are honorees. If you spend some time Sunday morning from about 8:00 am at the Hotel Kabuki, Lion Bruce (biwafuchi@yahoo.com) needs your assistance. Please help on this special occasion.
