Millbrae Leos Club

- The Millbrae Leos Club had planned to clean-up Bayside Manor Park on January 17th, but the park had already been cleaned up by other community members
    - As their Plan B, they picked up and threw away garbage they found when walking through the streets
    - They cleaned around the Bart Underpass and the neighborhood around the park
    - They contributed their services for 1.5 hours X 9 Leos (for 13.5hrs of service)
  - Millbrae LEOs Board and Club members presented at Taylor Middle School on the last Friday of January (1/28/22) for their inaugural recruitment drive.
    - 8th – grade Taylor Principal Rob Slauson invited the LEOs to come in for the monthly 8th Grade Student Assembly and share with the (animated!) rising High-Schoolers what it's like being in the Award-winning Millbrae LEOs Club! Great event, we expect a LOT of new membership/club-growth!
    - The LEO's partnered with MCTV (Millbrae Community TeleVision) staff (thanks Josh and Kaila!) to create several short video segments – you can see them here: Fun, Service, & Recruitment. SO PROUD of our LEO's – our future seems pretty safe in their capable hands!
    - (follow up news: 8 Taylor students RSVP'd for the February 16th LEO's General Meeting, and 4 new memberships were already processed!)
