THE LIONS CLUB OF FOSTER CITY MEETS THE 2ND AND 4TH TUESDAYS OF EACH MONTH

AT THE
WILLIAM E. WALKER
RECREATION CENTER
650 SHELL BLVD.
FOSTER CITY
AT 7:30 P.M.

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT LION MARTHA SANDY

Dear Fellow Lions,

At our last meeting, PDG Roger Chinn delivered a fascinating speech about our club's history to the 60 members and guests attending. He took us back 46 years to recapture the original spirit of the Club through humorous and anecdotal stories of times past.

In passing out the chevrons, it was most impressive to learn that 38 members had served in our club for more than 10 years. Also impressive was the fact that many of the original activities are still on-going today.

It is apparent that the Club's foundation as envisioned by our Charter Members undoubtedly contributed to the on-going success of our Club today. We have 8 members who have served for more than 30 years, 5 of whom are still active: PDG Roger Chinn (46yrs.), Lion Bob Goodwin (44yrs.), PP Sam Lerner (40 yrs.), Willie Swann (37yrs.), and PP Woody Andrews (33yrs.).

PDG Roger Chinn was given the "Distinguished Service Award" for his devoted and loyal service to the Foster City Lions Club and Lionism. Thank you PDG Roger for your continued dedication to our Club and to quote Lion Sam Lerner, "as Godfather of the Club!" Thank you Lion Sam for your wonderful introduction and for your idea to honor our long-serving members. Also, thanks go to all the past Presidents who brought those heavy and amazing scrapbooks to share!

Another highlight of the evening included the induction of Lisa Lombardo by our Membership Chair Ray Rosenthal, and the announcement that Lion Don Isaacs would receive a 'Life Membership'.

Past President Mary True and I attended the PCL meeting, which included a discussion of the upcoming Police & Firefighter Dinner & Awards Banquet to be held March 22nd, as well as several upcoming Club events.

On Saturday Feb. 2nd, Lions Jon Froomin and Ed Flank grilled hamburgers for the Special Olympics Basketball Team at the PJCC. They teamed up with the BASO Lions, who served the teams, coaches and families.

On the same day, Lions Kit Dittmar, Rich Lee, Shikha Hamilton, PDG's Roger Chinn, and Ray Rosenthal accompanied me to the Cabinet Meeting at the FC Rec Center. This was a meeting you all missed out on . . . our Club was praised, honored, and cheered throughout the day for our new membership accomplishments! New members received certificates from District Governor Bob Wilson, which I will bring to our next meeting. The entertainment kicking off the District Convention in May was hilarious... almost as good as what was going on at our table!

The final results from the Police-Fire Bingo Dinner have not yet been received, however it appears to have been successful and fun as it always is. Lion Carolyn Cox, with the support of many Lions and Leos, paired up well with the Rotarians and Interact students.

The Education Committee, Lions Mary True, Ed Flank and I, presented Brewer Island School with a $1000 donation, which will be directed towards various reading programs and book purchases; in line with the request from the International President to increase literacy by promoting reading skills for young children.

I've sold my 10 tickets for the Crab Feed Dinner on February 23rd. Have you bought your tickets yet?

To the newest members, "You get out what you put in." Make the commitment to attend meetings and events, and get involved. The more active and involved you are, the greater you will enjoy being a Lion and member of our Club.

And to everyone else, I would like to remind you that unless we harness the potential of every member, we will not create an environment for growth, fresh ideas, and attracting new members.

I will be heading to the MD4 Convention on Feb. 7th with PDG Ray Rosenthal and hopefully, PCP Lion Rich Lee. I look forward to seeing all of you at our next meeting Feb. 12th.

Yours in Lionism,
Martha

LIONS CODE of ETHICS

TO SHOW my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

TO SEEK success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

TO REMEMBER that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

WHENEVER a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.

TO HOLD friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one to another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

ALWAYS to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state and my community, and to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor, and means.

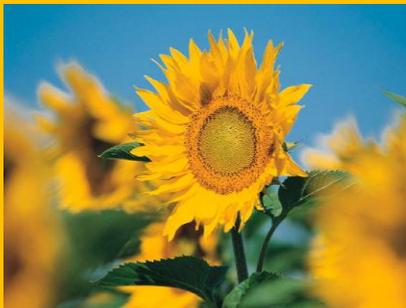

TO AID others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

TO BE CAREFUL with my criticism and liberal with praise; to build up and not destroy.

Her boyfriend is new Lion Steve Chen who is also her sponsor. She's excited because she'll be a first-time aunt sometime in February! Lisa LOVES going to the gym, doing yoga, going shopping, and eating chocolate. As a new Lion, she is hoping to get exposure to the many FC Lions activities and is just happy to be a Lion!

A Pinnacle Experience: Attending the Conventions

If you flip back through old issues of LION Magazine from the 1950s, the articles about the international conventions invariably describe them as the "greatest convention ever." OK, you say, it's possible the conventions got a little better each year, and the annual enthusiasm was justified. Then in the 1960s you see the same sentiment: "greatest convention ever." The same goes for stories in subsequent years. I don't believe this was a case of hyperbole on the part of Lions or the LION acting as a cheerleader. Instead, Lions who attend conventions are so overwhelmed by the experience that they rave about it.

This year I fully expect our 96th International Convention to be hailed by attendees as "the greatest ever." It starts with the host city, Hamburg, a wonderful venue. The historic, beautiful city has an international flair, delicious food and block after block of stunning Old World buildings. It's postcard Europe, a place entirely unlike a modern U.S. city with charms that took centuries to form.

Lions in Germany have been working overtime to make the convention a success. Their admirable efficiency and warm hospitality will ensure that Lions enjoy themselves and get the most they can out of the convention.

Conventions are filled with fellowship, fun and enrichment. You rub shoulders and often share a lunch or a few pleasantries from Lions from more than 120 countries. You can march down the streets of Hamburg during the festive Parade of Nations, attend worthwhile seminars, vote on the association's future, enjoy outstanding entertainment at the plenary sessions and International Show, and hear inspiring, renowned speakers. If you like being a Lion you will love being at the convention.

An international convention is the perfect occasion to celebrate our service and our identity as Lions. The week together allows Lions to fully appreciate what it means to be a Lion and what our service accomplishes. You learn about other club and district projects and make personal connections with international leaders and representatives from headquarters. Lions from around the world will feel at home in Hamburg and then return to their homes with a renewed enthusiasm for serving as a Lion.

Linda and I look forward to meeting you in Hamburg. In A World of Service, those who serve the world so magnificently will come together for an unforgettable week that will propel our great association forward with energy and vision.

Lions Clubs International President
