A special thanks to Chief Susan Manheimer, Police chief of San Mateo Police Department our keynote speaker with her very inspiring message to all of us about services that our Police and Firefighter does in our community. From the speech of Chief Susan, I quote "Tonight as we recognize the men and women, of Law enforcement and fire service, for their selfless acts, you have to wonder why, day in and day out, we keep putting on the uniform, knowing within seconds we can be heading into harm's way." More power to all of you.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people behind the scene who made this affair a very successful one to my fellow officers the Peninsula Council of Lions; Lion Mario, Lion Paul, Lion Sylvia and Lion Dan, thank you all for your hard work. Our welcoming Lions from left to right: Ora Seyler, Christine Cheshire, Sylvia Chu, Sandee Ige, and Once again the PCL hosted the Police and Firefighters Award Dinner. This was our 46th annual dinner, and it held all of the tradition of past events.

It began with cocktails in the lobby at 6:00 p.m. This is where the police and firefighters get to mingle with their families, friends and special guest. And, oh yes, with the Lions from the PCL clubs and the San Francisco Council of Lions Clubs.

The mood is always happy, and the dignitaries can get to talk to some of the guest. The group of PCL cabinet and those who helped put this event together are to be congratulated for a job well done.

Our volunteer Lions at registration got an early start with food, furnished by PCL Treasurer, Lions Sylvia Chu, to keep up their energy.

Once things got started, it really picked up. From an empty lobby to a packed house. It was a great time for everyone to talk, share stories, and just have a relaxed time before dinner.

While everyone was out in the lobby have a good time, PCL First VP, Lions Mario was placing the programs at each place on the tables.

It also gave PCL President Lion Rudy Pedagat a chance to do a little mengilling of his own. He has never been one to shy away from getting his picture taken with the dignitaries.

Lions Code of Ethics

To Show my faith in the worthiness of my vocation by industrious application to the end that I may merit a reputation for quality of service.

To Seek success and to demand all fair remuneration or profit as my just due, but to accept no profit or success at the price of my own self-respect lost because of unfair advantage taken or because of questionable acts on my part.

To Remember that in building up my business it is not necessary to tear down another's; to be loyal to my clients or customers and true to myself.

Whenever a doubt arises as to the right or ethics of my position or action towards others, to resolve such doubt against myself.

To Hold friendship as an end and not a means. To hold that true friendship exists not on account of the service performed by one another, but that true friendship demands nothing but accepts service in the spirit in which it is given.

Always to bear in mind my obligations as a citizen to my nation, my state, and my community, as to give them my unswerving loyalty in word, act, and deed. To give them freely of my time, labor and means.

To Aid others by giving my sympathy to those in distress, my aid to the weak, and my substance to the needy.

To Be Careful with my criticism and liberal with my praise; to build up and not destroy.

Lions International Purposes

To Organize, charter and supervise service clubs to be known as Lions clubs.

To Coordinate the activities and standardize the administration of Lions clubs.

To Create and foster a spirit of understanding among the peoples of the world.

To Promote the principles of good government and good citizenship.

To Take an active interest in the civic, cultural, social and moral welfare of the community.

To Unite the clubs in the bonds of friendship, good fellowship and mutual understanding.

To Provide a forum for the open discussion of all matters of public interest; provided, however, that partisan politics and sectarian religion shall not be debated by club members.

To Encourage service-minded people to serve their community without personal financial reward, and to encourage efficiency and promote high ethical standards in commerce, industry, professions, public works and private endeavors.
